

Articles of the Shenzhen 8K UHD Video Industry Cooperation Alliance

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 This Alliance shall be hereby named the Shenzhen 8K UHD Video Industry Cooperation Alliance, abbreviated as SUCA.

Article 2 The SUCA is made up of businesses, public institutions, academic and professional research institutes, professional organizations, and other entities that work on ultra-high definition (UHD) video production, video transmission, applications and services. This Alliance is an international, non-governmental, industrial and non-profit organization that focuses on promoting development of the UHD video industry.

Article 3 The SUCA aims to keep a global vision, improve the global UHD video industry environment, serve the industry, promote innovation, facilitate applications, and enhance cooperation. The Alliance strives to build an advanced, complete and mutual progress international UHD video industry ecosystem. The SUCA abides by the constitution, laws, regulations and national policies of the registered country.

Article 4 The SUCA accepts the guidance, supervision and management of the competent authority and the registration management authority.

Article 5 The SUCA is located in Shenzhen, China.

Chapter II Business Scope

Article 6 The SUCA's business scope covers:

(1) carrying out industry research and policy consultation to lead the development direction of the industry;

(2) promoting innovation in UHD video technologies, and encouraging joint innovation between the industry, academia and research institutes;

(3) promoting the popularization of UHD video applications, and cultivating new business models for the UHD video industry;

(4) promoting the study, formulation and implementation of technical standards for the UHD video industry by law, and carrying out related testing and certification;

(5) promoting international communication and cooperation within the UHD video industry; and

(6) undertaking other tasks entrusted by members of the SUCA.

Chapter III Membership

Article 7 The SUCA is made up of member entities.

Article 8 Any entity that applies for membership shall:

- (1) want to join the SUCA;
- (2) agree to abide by these Articles; and
- (3) have influence in the UHD video sector.

Article 9 In order to join the SUCA, an entity shall:

- (1) submit an application to the SUCA;
- (2) receive approval from the Standing Council; and
- (3) receive a membership certificate issued by the Council or other bodies authorized by the Council.

Article 10 Members have the right to:

- (1) elect and be elected, and vote on decisions of the SUCA;
- (2) participate in the activities of the SUCA;
- (3) have priority access to the services provided by the SUCA;
- (4) criticize, provide recommendations on, and supervise the work of the SUCA; and
- (5) freely join and withdraw from membership of the SUCA.

Article 11 Members shall:

- (1) abide by these Articles and execute the resolutions of the SUCA;
- (2) protect the legitimate rights and interests of the SUCA;
- (3) complete tasks assigned by the SUCA;
- (4) pay membership dues as required; and
- (5) provide information to the SUCA as required.

Article 12 Members who want to withdraw from the SUCA shall notify the SUCA in writing and return their membership certificates. If a member does not pay their required membership dues or does not participate in SUCA activities for more than 12 months, the member shall be automatically viewed as having had withdrawn from the SUCA.

Article 13 Members who seriously violate these Articles shall, upon approval by the Council, be delisted from the SUCA.

Chapter IV Generation and Removal of Organization and Responsible Person

Article 14 The highest authority of the SUCA is the General Assembly.

The General Assembly shall:

- (1) formulate and revise the Articles of Alliance;
- (2) elect and remove board members of Council;
- (3) review the work reports and financial reports of the Council;
- (4) formulate and revise the rules for membership dues;
- (5) decide on termination; and
- (6) decide on other important matters.

Article 15 A quorum of two-thirds of SUCA members must be present before a General Assembly can commence, and the resolutions of a meeting shall take effect only when they are put to a vote and approved by more than half of the members present.

Article 16 In principle, the General Assembly shall be convened once a year.

Article 17 The SUCA Council shall be the executive body of the General Assembly, shall lead the SUCA in carrying out daily work between General Assembly, and shall be answerable to the General Assembly.

Article 18 The Council shall:

- (1) implement the resolutions of the General Assembly;
- (2) elect and remove the Chair, Vice Chair(s), the Secretary-general and board members of Standing Council;
- (3) convene General Assembly;
- (4) report to the General Assembly of the work and financial status of the SUCA;
- (5) decide on the admission and removal of SUCA members;
- (6) decide on the establishment and cancellation of, and changes to, SUCA offices, branches, representative agencies, and entities;
- (7) decide on the appointment of Under Secretary-generals and heads of SUCA agencies;
- (8) lead the work of SUCA agencies;
- (9) formulate internal management regulations; and
- (10) decide on other important matters.

Article 19 A quorum of two-thirds of board members of Council must be present before a Council meeting can commence, and the resolutions of a meeting shall take effect only when they are put to a vote and approved by at least two-thirds of the members present.

Article 20 The Council shall meet at least once a year. Under special circumstances, the meeting may be conducted remotely such as by video calls.

Article 21 The SUCA shall not establish a Standing Council.

Article 22 A quorum of two-thirds of board members of Council must be present before a Council meeting can commence, and the resolutions of a meeting shall take effect only when they are put to a vote and approved by at least two-thirds of the members present.

Article 23 The Council shall meet at least once every six months. In special circumstances, the meeting may be conducted remotely such as by video calls.

Article 24 The Chair, Vice Chair(s) and the Secretary-general shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) they are relatively influential within UHD audio and video domain;
- (2) the maximum official age of the Chair, Vice Chair(s) and the Secretary-general shall not exceed 70 years old, the Secretary-general is a full-time position;
- (3) they are in good health and able to take on regular work; and
- (4) they have complete capacity for civil disposition.

Article 25 The Chair, Vice Chair(s), and the Secretary-general exceed the maximum official age shall be put to a vote at the Council, reviewed by the competent authority, and approved by the registration management authority before they can hold office.

Article 26 The Chair, Vice Chair(s), and the Secretary-general shall be elected for three-year terms, and shall not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. Extension of their terms of office in special circumstances shall be put to a vote at a General Assembly and approved by more than two-thirds of members present, reviewed by the competent authority, and approved by the registration management authority.

Article 27 The Chair shall act as the legal representative of the SUCA. Under special circumstances, Vice Chair(s) or the Secretary-general shall act as the legal representative entrusted by the Chair, approved by the Council, reviewed by the competent authority, and approved by the registration management authority. The legal representative signs important documents on behalf of the SUCA. The legal representative of the SUCA shall not concurrently serve as the legal representative of other organizations.

Article 28 The Chair shall:

(1) convene and preside over the Council and the Standing Council meetings;

(2) check the implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly,

Council, and Standing Council; and

(3) handle other matters.

Article 29 The Secretary-general shall:

(1) preside over the daily work of SUCA offices and organize the implementation of annual work plans;

(2) coordinate the work of branches, representative agencies, and entities;

(3) nominate Under Secretary-general(s) and heads of SUCA agencies, and submit the nominations to the Standing Council for decision-making;

(4) advise SUCA offices, representative agencies, and entities on the recruitment and appointment of full-time staff, and submit the recommendations to the Standing Council for decision-making; and

(5) handle other daily work.

Chapter V Assets Management and Use

Article 30 The funding sources of the SUCA are:

(1) membership dues;

(2) donations;

(3) government funding;

(4) revenue from activities or services carried out within the approved

activity scope;

(5) interests; and

(6) other legal incomes.

Article 31 The SUCA collects membership dues in accordance with the relevant regulations of the country where the SUCA is registered.

Article 32 The SUCA's funds shall be used for the development of the business and undertakings specified in these Articles, and shall not be allocated among the members.

Article 33 The SUCA shall establish a strict financial management system to ensure the lawfulness, authenticity, accuracy, and completeness of accounting materials.

Article 34 The SUCA shall be staffed with qualified accounting professionals. Accountants shall not also act as cashiers, and shall conduct accounting and perform accounting supervision. An accountant resigning or being transferred to another post must handover the job to their successor properly.

Article 35 Assets of the SUCA shall be managed according to the financial management regulations of the country where it is registered, and be subject to the supervision by the General Assembly and financial departments. Funding from the government and social donations received shall be audited and supervised, and the situation of such funding shall be disclosed to the public in an appropriate manner.

Article 36 The SUCA shall go through a financial audit by the registration management authority and the competent authority prior to changes of the term of the Council or the legal representative.

Article 37 No entity or individual may embezzle, share, or misappropriate the assets of the SUCA.

Article 38 Salaries, insurance and welfare benefits provided to the full-time staff of the SUCA shall be based on the relevant regulations of the country where it is registered, with reference to relevant international practices.

Chapter VI Modifications to These Articles

Article 39 Modifications to these Articles shall be put to a vote and approved by the Council before being submitted to the General Assembly for review.

Article 40 Amendments to these Articles shall be reviewed and approved by the competent authority, and be submitted to the registration management authority for approval within 15 days after the approval by the General Assembly.

Chapter VII Termination and Property Disposal

Article 41 The deregistration of the SUCA due to its own dissolution, separation, merger, or other reasons shall be proposed by the Council through a motion to terminate.

Article 42 The motion to terminate shall be put to a vote and approved by the General Assembly and shall be submitted to the competent authority for review and approval.

Article 43 Prior to the termination of the SUCA, a liquidation organization shall be established under the guidance of the competent authority and relevant agencies to clear up claims and debts and deal with related matters. During the liquidation period, no activities other than liquidation activities shall be performed.

Article 44 The SUCA shall be terminated upon the completion of deregistration procedure by the registration management authority.

Article 45 The remaining assets after the SUCA is terminated shall not be embezzled or shared by any members, and, under the joint supervision of the competent authority and the registration management authority, shall be used for developing undertakings related to the purpose of the SUCA in accordance with relevant regulations of the country where it was registered.

Chapter VIII Supplementary Provisions

Article 46 These Articles are approved by a vote at the First Session of the First General Assembly on September 26th, 2020.

Article 47 The Council reserves the right to interpret these Articles.

Article 48 These Articles shall take effect as of the date of approval by the registration management authority.